All speakers are kindly requested to limit their presentations to a maximum of 20 min., followed by 10 min. discussion. Thanks a lot!

Registration: The participation in the conference is free of charge. But it is required to register. Please be so kind and register with an email to: Ms. Dorina Kley (dkley@uni-koeln.de). The final programme and access to the conference (Zoom link) will be provided in time before the conference.

On Friday evening, as social event a digital Thai cooking event will take place. Every participant will receive a shopping list several days before the event (and needs to buy the ingredients by him-/herself, vegetarian/vegan version possible). Every participant will do the cooking him-/herself in his/her own kitchen under a shared online supervision via Zoom meeting. The supervising cook will show, explain and give hints how to prepare the meal properly. At the end, we will enjoy a good chat over (hopefully) wonderful Thai dinner in the digital meeting room – either altogether in the digital auditorium or break-out rooms free of choice. Please indicate your participation with the registration. The participation fee is 15,- € per person (to be paid directly to the supervisor).
